

Non-compliance with the principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors

For the time being, except as may be otherwise disclosed at a later stage on our website, LEON MFO INVESTMENTS LIMITED does not consider principal adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors. [as an FMP]

Further, taking due account of the size, the nature and scale of the activities and the types of financial products that LEON MFO INVESTMENTS LIMITED advises on, LEON MFO INVESTMENTS LIMITED does not consider in its investment advice the principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors. [as a financial adviser]

The main reason is actually that currently such considerations are deemed irrelevant to our business decisions taking into account the nature and scope of our activities.
